La reina Isabel cantaba rancheras (Queen Elizabeth Sang Rancheras) (Spanish Edition) Hernán Rivera Letelier

"In the 1920s, a town in the North of Chile called Pampa Union enjoyed great fame for having the highest concentration of brothels and bars in the area. The main character is the emblematic figure of Queen Elizabeth, a receptive woman of sweet disposition who captures the love of those who surround her. Life goes on until her death befalls them, giving way to the desertion of the salt mines and of the joyful and carefree town. Spanish Description: En los años 20, existió un pueblo llamado Pampa Union que gozó de gran fama en el norte chileno. Estaba ubicado en pleno desierto, entre Calama y Antofagasta. El atractivo del lugar era que ostentaba la mayor concentración de prostibulos y bares de la zona. La Reina Isabel cantaba rancheras. En ella se rescatan las memorias de las minas de salitre, sus fatigas y sus descansos en la tiniebla prostibularia. Las prostitutas y alentados pampinos que, sin querer, unen sus vidas por el hilo conductor del sexo, llegando a establecer lazos de amistad y convivencia cotidiana, recorriendo diferentes situaciones que envuelven acaloradamente a cada uno de ellos. El personaje principal es, sin duda, la emblemática figura de la Reina Isabel, mujer de carácter dulce y presencia receptiva, que sin indagarlo se apodera del cariño de quienes le rodean, y el amor del Huaso Grande. Todo marcha de forma muy natural, hasta que cae sobre ellos la muerte de la Reina Isabel. Dando lugar a la clara evaporación de las salitreras."
