Writing Your Life will help you write down the stories of your life, for present and future generations. Even if you never considered yourself a writer, you will find yourself writing enthusiastically as you work through this thought-provoking, easy-to-follow guide.

Writing Your Life includes:

- practical advice for getting started and staying motivated;
- questions to stimulate your memory;
- activities to help you remember the past, or look to the past in a new way;
- selections from the autobiographical writings of ordinary men and women;
- sample writing tips;
- reading suggestions, quotations, historical tidbits and other food for thought; and
- instructions for "publishing" a book for family and friends.

This book is ideal for anyone college age or older.
