Nothing ever came easy for Tiara Banks, a sassy teenager growing up on the mean streets of Washington , D.C. But she learned at a young age, that with her beauty and sex-appeal she could certainly tip the odds in her favor. The self-proclaimed bad girl meets her match when a handsome, popular football player by the name of Eric Graves walks into her world. Eric quickly jumps in the line-up along with the other love prospects in Tiara's life including Mr. Will Walters, her sexy, fresh-out-of-college, high school teacher and mentor. The sexy teen vixen has her work cut out for her as she aims to seduce and conquer the heart of the football player, who is every bit a player off the field as he is on the field, and the teacher who stands to lose everything if he follows her lead and allows passion to combust. Everyone knows that playing with fire may cause someone to get burned, but who will it be?

Tamieka Briscoe is a fiction writer/blogger based out of the Washington D.C. metropolitan area. Her works include her debut novel Like a Moth to a Flame, and her blog site Powderroomchat.com. She is a single mother of two.
