Flashworld S.R. Templar

With the lights so quickly flickering out, can anyone see their way?

Declan Masters lives in a dark time, in a world where swords and savagery are the rule of law and the merciless men who govern are deadlier than the blade. Little does the young warrior know, but ancient forces have ordained him the Chosen One, a champion and savior granted a mysterious power, the only one who has the strength to battle the dark forces that threaten to destroy his land and all who occupy it. Arcadus de Casselles, a ruthless ruler desperate for power, discovers Declan's destiny and will stop at nothing to destroy him.

Amidst the darkness and chaos, Declan embarks on an epic journey to save himself and battle Arcadus. Aided by his band of compatriots--his brother, his good friends, their trusty dog, and newfound allies he meets along the treacherous path -- Declan seeks to unravel the mystery of that ancient power, all while combating a sadistic madman who seeks to kill him and pervert that power for his own foul intentions. Time is not on Declan's side as Arcadus snuffs out the light and seeks to envelop the land in darkness.

Will the light burn long enough for Declan to find his way? Can he save himself, his family, his friends, and the world?
