A leap of faith

Desperate to find a quiet place to write her novel, Abby Travis leaves the city behind for a secluded cabin in the heart of Montana. Fresh air and blessed solitude; that's what she expects to find, but someone forgot to mention that the only other cabin on her side of the mountain is occupied by a man who gives a whole new meaning to the phrase chemical reaction.

Into the arms of her lover?

There is a reason for Jack Burton's self-imposed withdrawal from society and he resents the invasion by the Travis woman. Hair as black as midnight, legs that go on forever, rose-tinted lips that beg to be kissed; disruptive doesn't begin to describe the effect Abby's beauty and dangerous curves have on him. Keeping his secrets isn't going to be easy, not when the attraction between them is as hot as a live wire and so powerful there is no possibility of resisting the primal urges she incites.

Or a cold-blooded killer?

Abby is thrilled to discover that Jack is a writer too, and what begins as a passionate affair quickly develops into an undying love. But when Abby discovers a nearby town has been plagued by a serial killer and that the circumstances are eerily similar to those in Jack's yet to be released novel, the perfect life she envisioned with him begins to crumble. Abby trusts him with her heart, but trusting Jack with her life could prove to be fatal.

Leap of Faith is the 2nd novel in the TRAVIS Series and can be read as part of the series or stand alone
