Through Darkness: A Story of the Bosnian Diaspora Aldiana Deumic

Surviving concentration camp and genocide in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the early 1990's — being close to losing life to bombings — starvation — robbed of her childhood at the age of nine — forced from her home — losing loved ones — separated from her father — coming to the United States as a teenager without knowledge of English — Amna's childhood, her teenage years and her early adulthood are dominated by darkness. Will she escape the hands of the Angel of Death that constantly follows her from the "Land of Blood and Nightmares" to the "Land of Hopes and Dreams?" Follow Amna through a journey of innocence, faith, love, perseverance and growth.
