Constitutional and Administrative Law (Palgrave Macmillan Law Masters) John Alder

The Palgrave Macmillan Law Masters series is a long-running and successful list of titles offering clear, concise and authoritative guides to the main subject areas, written by experienced and respected authors. The eighth edition of Constitutional and Administrative Law has been thoroughly updated to reflect important changes that have taken place since the election of the new coalition government. There is a new expanded section on administrative law, new chapters on international affairs and constitutional reform, and more detailed coverage of many key areas, including human rights, judicial review and the role of semi-accountable public bodies. This is an ideal companion to undergraduate or GDL/CPE courses in constitutional and administrative law or public law. The enhanced layout includes end of chapter summaries, self-test exercises and suggestions for further reading. A companion website featuring updates on latest developments can be found at www.palgrave.com/law/alder8e
