The seasons. In four books. : With Britannia James Thomson

"THE Methods now pursued in teaching the English Tongue, are such as give all the Advantages, that formerly could only be acquired by an Acquaintance with the dead Languages; This has raised its Value, and brought into Esteem many of the Productions, and elegant Compositions, that have appeared in the English Language, whose Beauties and Value were hitherto, only perceptible to those who had laboured in the learned Languages, or had walked in the Fields of Science."

This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
