Another Man's Woe Billy Devlin

A detective who became a cop because she hates them. A troubled fireman wants to be a hero to his family but isn't sure who they are anymore. A union representative sees an opportunity to further his ambitions and a teacher grows frustrated with his prized student who dares to think for himself. These lives and the investigation into the death of a defendant-friendly judge paint a portrait of a New York City struggling with a racial, class and ideology divide.
