The Last Adam (Grace and Knowledge Series Book 1) Woody Brohm

Jesus Christ is described as “The Last Adam” in 1 Corinthians 15:45. To understand the significance of this obscure title requires extensive Bible study and reflection. The goal of this book is to enable the reader to understand the Bible as it was meant to be understood, as a whole, from beginning to end. This is accomplished through straightforward statements, authoritative conclusions, and relevant Bible references for further investigation. For example, to explore the significance of The Last Adam, we’ll have to start back with the first man, Adam, and get a grasp on the ramifications of his life. Once that is accomplished, we can prepare to discover the meaning and significance of the Last Adam, head of the new creation! This is a subject that toggles back and forth between the beginning of time and the end. We are able to navigate such vast extremes because the Bible contains God’s revelation of such events. We will explore these revealed mysteries by relying on teachings from the Apostles as recorded in the New Testament. Helpful explanations and commentary are included to engage the reader to “grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18).

Too often we attempt to understand life only from a human perspective and come up lacking. Think for a minute about an apple seed. We may see nothing more than a seed and perhaps the potential for a tree. God can look at that seed and see all the trees that will ever come from it! Or in reverse, He knows the apple and tree from which it came and knows the source all the way back to the first apple tree He ever created in the beginning. In contemplating God’s perspective, it’s necessary to step back and consider the greatness of our God and Creator.

Life for mankind began with instructions and a warning. When God warned Adam that he would die for eating the forbidden fruit, he meant not only Adam himself but the entire race of mankind. As God anticipated the sin and death of the entire race, He proactively took action to redeem all the members of our race through the Last Adam who would establish a new creation. Take this unique opportunity to hear God communicate in a way you may never have before. See for yourself one unique way the Holy Spirit is revealing God’s Message regarding sin, righteousness, judgment, and salvation. Understand Bible doctrine regarding redemption, justification and substitutionary sacrifice. Clear explanations for everyday people make this a worthwhile investment of your time. This series is designed that you may increase your understanding of the Bible with special emphasis on the established doctrine of the Apostle Paul who said, “From one man [Adam] he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands. God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us” (Acts 17:26-27 NIV).
