"Taking a life, even when it was justified, had a way of killing the soul just a little bit. Because it was almost as if you were admitting to having no hope - no hope that good could triumph over evil without becoming just a little bit evil itself."

Despite keeping secrets and concealing her past, Kit Forrester loves her life. She's a successful writer, surrounded by good friends, and accountable to no one. But when a cold-blooded war criminal is hired to assassinate her, Kit must choose between her own survival and justice for thousands. Determined to protect Kit and the life she's built, Garret Cantona isn't happy with the choice she has to make. Especially when throwing Kit back into her broken past and risking everything they've created together may be the only way they can survive.
