Estudios Sobre Joaquín Costa (Spanish Edition) Oscar Ignacio Mateos Y De Cabo

La actual realidad española es comprensible a través del análisis profundo y riguroso del desarrollo de las deficiencias producidas durante nuestro proceso de modernización. En la época de la Restauración se llevó a cabo un gran impulso para la modernización del país en todos los órdenes, pero fue la crisis desatada por la pérdida colonial de 1898 la que marcó, en relación con dicho proceso, un importantísimo cambio dentro de las tendencias imperantes. En este contexto, el máximo exponente del proyecto de modernización para España es, sin duda, Joaquín Costa. En la presente obra se estudia con claridad y rigor científico su concepción del Derecho, la Política y el Humanismo para explicar, a través de la investigación biográfico original y del análisis de interpretación novedoso de sus formulaciones doctrinales, el regeneracionismo costista como propuesta de modernización para España. Por esta razón, las líneas de investigación abiertas en este trabajo resultan vitales para entender los conceptos y las ideas clave que fluyen de los centros de actividad política e intelectual de aquel tiempo. La investigación aporta, además, el estudio de una personalidad tan compleja y atrayente como la de Costa y profundiza en su obra.
