Are they ready for it? Can they look under the banner of "science" taught in a classroom and defend their Christian faith with surety? Can you? Have your students prepared for the dangers of modern psychology and provide them with a framework in which they can study the wonders of the soul, the mind, the brain, and behavior through a Christian worldview, while they are still in high school, Even if your high schooler is not planning on attending college, I suggest that you review this for their high school studies. It is the only resource available to the home school family that not only addresses issues they will face in the required college course, PSYCH 101, but also addresses what they will face outside the class room, i.e., discussions at the local coffee shop, Sunday School classes, or the water cooler at work. -presented in a well-designed text book format.
